

Sir Michael Nwala
CHAIRMAN, BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Nwalasits as the Chairman Board of Trustees of Our Rights, and with over two decades of experience in ICT and Civil Society activities. His work included broadband policy development, Voice and Data, Wi-Fi Riders, Quantum Technologies as well as understanding universal access and digital inclusion in the context of development. Nwala has served as a board member of the Initiative for Protection of Civic Right. Currently, he is Group General Manager Gebato Telecoms Technology, specialist in ICT solution providers. Gebato Telecoms Technology is partners to NEC Philips Unified Solutions, CISCO Systems and ABB China. Being a passionate crusader of people's freedom through socio-economic emancipation he also supports many credible NGOs and community-based organisations to promote economic empowerment, self-reliance and good governance. Nwala who holds a Master's Degree in Communication Technology is an author of some professional papers and a contributor in several others.