

Patrick UMEHEA.
EVENT AND PROJECT MANAGER

Patrick is an experienced ICT for Development Practitioner. He has more than nine years' experience working with Governments, fixed-line and mobile operators, and development partners. Before joining Our Rights, In addition to an MSc in Development Studies, Patrick holds a BSc in Political Science and Public Administration. He is a professionally trained project manager and has a superb track record of building successful relationships and delivering quality and value to stakeholders. In recent years, his work has focused on increasing Internet access; and understanding ICT users' demand for services, their usage of those services and perceptions of satisfaction.